Sunny Kalsi (Senior software Developer),

I had the pleasure of supervising Naveen as a Software Developer Intern in the Production and Maintenance department at Inteligeeks Pvt Ltd from May 1st, 2022, to October 30th, 2022.

Throughout their internship, Naveen consistently impressed me with their strong technical skills, dedication to learning, and unwavering work ethic. They quickly grasped complex concepts and readily applied them to solve real-world problems. Their key strengths include:

- Exceptional Programming Skills: Naveen demonstrated proficiency in ReactJs and JavaScript while contributing to websites of clients especially one where he designed the website from scratch. Their clean code and efficient solutions showcased their understanding of software development principles.
- Problem-Solving Prowess: Naveen approached challenges with a methodical and analytical approach. They could break down complex problems into manageable steps and implement effective solutions while considering resource constraints and maintainability.
- Teamwork and Collaboration: Naveen actively collaborated with team members, effectively communicating ideas and progress. They readily sought and implemented feedback, contributing to a positive and productive team environment.
- Quick Learner: Naveen displayed a strong thirst for knowledge and actively sought out learning opportunities. They readily grasped new technologies and adapted to changing project requirements.
- Professional Demeanour: Naveen consistently maintained a professional attitude and work ethic. They were reliable, punctual, and always willing to go the extra mile.

During their internship, Naveen displayed good level of designing websites the frontend as well as the backend using (php and MySQL). Their dedication and skills were instrumental in increasing the traffic and sales of customer and providing them with an opportunity to do business online .

Naveen is not only a skilled developer but also a valuable asset to any team. They are eager to learn, possess a positive attitude, and are highly motivated to excel.

Best Regards,
